Around the Table

Virgilio shared that ILL is going well at IC and they continue to try new things. Sarah Shank shared that Cornell Companions (aka the llama) will be on the IC campus on April 23. Also, they are working end of semester preparation and also hiring students for the Fall. Hiring of students for the Summer will take place after the Fall student hiring has completed.

Sarah Trancansky shared that they don't have a lot going on. They are working to spend collection development funds before the end of the semester.

Caitlin Finlay let us know that there is nothing to share at this time.

BARC Transition Update

Christine shared that the new BARC has been operating since early February. Since then, we've received 17 requests for credentials to access BARC and we have processed more than 50 requests for ILL items. Things are going well thanks to all the work that Sarah Shank put into making Clio work for us. We will work on marketing the service in early May.

Accessibility

There was discussion about actions everyone was taking to meet the Title II Requirements and Christine shared that SCRLC doesn't meet Title II status but that we plan to work toward them because many of our members so need to follow Title II standards.
