

Report from the SCRLC Nominating Committee

The SCRLC Board of Trustees Nominating Committee presents the following nominations for Board of Trustees for terms beginning in 2021

Camille Andrews, Emerging Literacies Librarian, Cornell University, for a second full term, 2021-2025.

Camille Andrews is Emerging Literacies Librarian at Albert R. Mann Library at Cornell University Library (CUL), where she works on instruction and outreach for the mannUfactory makerspace. Since 2004, Camille has also been involved in: online learning; assessment for learning outcomes, technologies, services and spaces; information and media literacy initiatives; and learning technologies. She is extremely interested in the intersection of library and information science, user experience, instructional design, 21st century literacies and new technologies. Camille graduated from the College of William and Mary in 1996 with a BA in Literary and Cultural Studies (focused on Francophone African and Caribbean Literature) and from Simmons College in 2003 with a master's in Library and Information Science. Camille also serves on SCRLC's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Advisory Committee.

Jean Jenkins, Medical Librarian/CME Coordinator, Lourdes Hospital, for a second full term, 2021-2025.

Jean is the Medical Librarian and Continuing Medical Education Coordinator at Lourdes Hospital. In addition to her SCRLC Board responsibilities, she also serves on the Hospital Library Services Program Advisory Committee. She holds MD and PhD degrees from the University of Chicago.

David Stevick, Director of Libraries & Information Resources, Houghton College, for a second full term, 2021-2025.

David Stevick is the Director of Libraries & Information Resources at Houghton College, where he has served for 12 years. He has worked for three colleges during his career. Immediately prior to moving to Houghton, he was privileged to direct the library of the New Mexico branch of Diné College, the tribal college of the Navajo Nation. His hobbies include trail riding, hiking, languages, and several martial arts. He recently has taken up the ukulele. David also serves on the board of his local public library in Belfast, New York.
