

Report from the SCRLC Nominating Committee

The SCRLC Board of Trustees Nominating Committee presents the following nominations for Board of Trustees for terms beginning in 2024

Mary Ann Munroe, Greater Southern Tier BOCES SLS, for a first term, 2024-2028.

Mary Ann Munroe has been the School Library Services Director at GST BOCES for the last four years. Her teaching career has spanned 15+ years and she has taught everything from 2nd grade to ACE courses. Mary Ann is certified in six subject areas including Special Education and English, holds a Masters in School Library Media, a Masters in Education, an administrative degree in School District Leadership and an Ed.S. in Curriculum and Instruction. Prior to beginning her teaching career Mary Ann was in business as a paralegal and office manager for a small law firm and a financial manager for a non-profit. Mary Ann previously served as Treasurer of Community Arts of Elmira and is a life member of the South Creek Fire Department. She currently lives in Fassett, PA with her husband Mike who works at Cornell, and their two dogs Ellie and Percy, and her mom Linda. Together we have four children and four grandchildren (soon to be five).

Fiona Patrick, Corning Incorporated, for a second term, 2024-2028.

Fiona Patrick has been with Corning Incorporated since 2012 where she leads operations of the Technical Information Center. This includes evaluation, acquisition, deployment, optimization and management of external research resources for scientists and engineers across the corporation. From 2002-2012 she worked at Cornell University as Project Coordinator, Digital Consulting and Production Services. She has experience facilitating collaborations in the creation and management of digital scholarly content in support of learning, teaching and research. Fiona holds a Masters in Library Science from University of Buffalo and a BA from Binghamton University.
