PHASE ONE (2014): Includes harvesting existing digital collections hosted directly by NY 3Rs councils and other large institutions with “DPLA-ready” collections.

PHASE TWO (2015): Includes harvesting additional collections from NY libraries, archives, museums, and cultural heritage institutions that will require more preparation to be DPLA-ready.

Harvester be hosted by METRO in collaboration with 8 regional NY 3Rs Councils. NY 3Rs Council members include most academic, public, special, school, and hospital libraries in New York. Some also include private libraries, archives, and cultural heritage institutions.
