Part B -- Project Report

Goals:
The archivist requires training in scanning procedures, equipment use, and image editing. Also requested is training in hardware usage and procedures in order to contribute accurately to New York Heritage. The goal is to digitize parts of our collection which are historically significant and to adhere to the training protocols which meet the current standards in the uniform and consistent with New York Heritage and South Central Regional Library Council.

- Monica received training from SCRLC in scanning procedures, equipment use and image editing.
- The Ford Library provided additional training in scanning procedures, equipment use and image editing.

Outcomes:

- Successfully digitize the Willard Scrapbook
  - Digitized Willard Scrapbook B with 170 pages photographed and edited.
  - Completed metadata for each item in Excel
  - Willard Scrapbook A was formerly digitized; rescanned the cover and one insert
  - Completed metadata for 98 pages of Willard Scrapbook A. (Out of 161. These will be completed on library time by the end of April.)
- Successfully digitize our collection of 61 black and white photographs of the Willard Psychiatric Center
  - Digitized 58 images (3 photos of patients were eliminated).
  - Completed metadata for each of the 58 images. Images and metadata have been delivered to SCRLC.
- Successfully digitize New Directions
  - Scanned 91 double-sided issues.
  - Completed metadata for each issue. Images and metadata have been delivered to SCRLC.
  - Provided SCRLC list of photos to be edited to remove names and images of patients.
- If time permits, begin to digitize the Ovid Bee
  - There was no time to address the Ovid Bee.

Evaluation:

- Ford Memorial Library Archivist will learn to digitize materials to work independently.
  - This was achieved.
- Digitized materials will be available for the public via New York Heritage
  - SCRLC will upload the information to New York Heritage.
Part C – Budget Summary

1. Summary: Provide a budget summary indicating your RBDB program request and your library's proposed contribution in each of the following categories. Your contribution must match the amount requested, and it can be any combination of in-kind and/or cash contributions.
